ANTIOCH TOWNSHIP ASSESSMENT LIST PUBLISHED TODAY

Treasurer Nelson Advises Taxpayers to Check Valuations

Antioch township assessment roll, for personal property and real estate changes, appears today in the Antioch News. Due to the alphabetical position of Antioch on the county treasurer's books this township is usually the first to have the tax extensions completed.

Under the law, tax lists should be published on or before July 10 each year, but due to delay in receiving assessors' books from heavily populated townships, publication is sometimes delayed beyond that date.

When assessment rolls appear taxpayers are urged to check valuations of their property as listed and if there is complaint the matter should be brought to the attention of the board of review without delay. County Treasurer Allen Nelson has caused a notice to this effect to be published in newspapers carrying the assessment lists.

The Lake county board of review began its work of examining assessments and fixing valuations ten days ago. Heading the board as chairman is Homer T. Cook, chairman of the board of supervisors. Serving with him are John E. Hayes of North Chicago, and Frank J. Ronan of Highland Park.

The board of review will be in session for several months reviewing the valuations as indicated by the township assessors' books.

Two June Brides Take Marriage Vows

Lynch - Larkin, Simonsen-Hanke Nuptials Solemnized During Week

The wedding of Miss Anne Mary Larkin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Larkin of Chicago and Edward Thomas Andrew Lynch of Antioch was solemnized at St. Gilbert's church at 4 p. m. Saturday afternoon at Grayslake. The Rev. Father Barrett read the nuptial services.

The bride was dressed in a white satin and lace gown with long tulle veil. Her large bouquet was of white roses. She was given in marriage by her father. Miss Mary Elizabeth Kene and Miss Elizabeth Carrier were bridesmaids, and little Donna Marie Sabille was flower girl. Pastel silk fashioned the gowns of the attendants who carried bouquets of roses of the same color.

George Lynch, brother of the groom and Dr. Leo Larkin were the attendants.

A reception honoring the bridal couple was held at the Druce Lake Hotel following the wedding ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynch will reside in Chicago.

Simonsen-Hanke

Nuptial vows were taken by Miss Anna Amelia Hanke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Hanke, and Edgar S. Simonsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Simonsen at 5 o'clock at the home of the bride Saturday afternoon. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. S. A. Jedele, of the Lutheran church of Wilmet, Wis.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father, was gowned in white silk crepe and wore a wreath of orange blossoms in her hair. Her bouquet was made of lilies-of-the-valley and white carnations. Miss Mabel Simonsen, sister of the groom, was maid of honor. Her dress was of green chiffon, and she carried sweet-peas and red carnations. Otto Hanke, Jr., brother of the bride, was best man.

A wedding reception for twenty-eight guests was held at the home of the bride's parents, immediately following the ceremony. Seventy-five friends and neighbors gave the bride and groom a miscellaneous shower at the home of the bride's parents in the evening. They were presented with many useful and lovely gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Simonsen will make their home in Antioch.

Mrs. Louise Gilbert and son, Edward, of Chicago, were guests of their parents and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. James Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Savage and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Heyden of Kenosha and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sheard of Pawpaw, Michigan, called at the Sol LaPlant home Tuesday evening.

Local Lads Attend Boys State at Springfield

William A. Phillips and Bob Burke returned Sunday from Springfield where they had spent the week at the Boys State. Bill was sent by the Antioch Legion post and Bob by the Auxiliary, and both are to give a report to their sponsors at the next meeting.

Over 1200 Illinois lads were encamped on the State fair grounds, where the entire week was given over to an Americanism program. The boys set up machinery for state government and officers were elected to carry on the processes of state. Both local boys held office as supervisors, and besides serving as a director of the board of health, Bill became an "attorney at law," being permitted to practice before the courts in the boys' city.

The trip to and from Springfield was made by special train.

Funeral services for Warren Hook, prominent farmer of Millburn, who died late Sunday in St. Therese hospital, Waukegan, were held Tuesday afternoon at the family home in Millburn and burial was in Warren cemetery. TWO DROWNINGS BRING COUNTY TOLL TO SEVEN

Chicago Dentist Drowns in Bangs Lake; Petite Lake Claims One

Two drownings over the week-end brought Lake county's 1937 toll to seven. The men losing their lives in Lake county waters were Dr. John Donovan Bohr, a dentist attached to the Illinois hospital for the insane at Dunning, drowned in Bangs lake at Wauconda Sunday, and Ray Coquillette, 22, of 1316 N. Ridgeway avenue, Chicago, who lost his life in Petite lake Saturday.

Dr. Bohr, 33, and a good swimmer, sank from exhaustion after he had rescued eight-year-old B. Russell, Jr., of Chicago. His body was recovered an hour later.

Surviving are his wife, a sister, and his father, John Bohr, of Wauconda. Antioch firemen recovered the body of Coquillette from Petite Lake after two hours dragging. Coquillette had come to Petite lake Saturday in company with Miss Edwina Raghuwal, also of Chicago. The two went for a swim, and while Miss Raghuwal was on shore Coquillette went for a swim. When he sank, rescuers were unable to find him.

Miss Raghuwal testified at the inquest conducted by Deputy Coroner Maurice Penney, that she had known the drowned man for about a month.

BOB BRUNS GRAPPLES JAPANESE CHAMP IN OPENING MAT SHOW

Round Lake Arena Opens With All-Star Card Friday, July 9

Oki Shikina, internationally famous Japanese heavyweight wrestling champion, has been selected to oppose young Bob Bruns, 218 pound sensational world title threat, in the first all-star professional wrestling card of the current summer season to be staged in the Round Lake Haunted House open-air arena under the stars Friday night, July 9.

No other matches for the first card have been closed as yet.

Bruns, who has just returned from a six month campaign throughout the eastern states, has become the greatest box office attraction since Jim London.

Promoter Fred Kohler and Matchmaker Les White have combined in bringing the nation's leading heavyweight and light-heavyweight stars to the Round Lake bowl this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Marston Ballow and daughter, Miss Carol Ballow of Ashley, Ohio, and Mrs. Hazel Ender of Chicago were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sol LaPlant.

FOR A HAPPY HOLIDAY

The "Glorious Fourth" can be just as glorious as we choose to make it. This year the long week-end created by the holiday will intensify the hazards which the Fourth always produces. The coming week-end will demonstrate vividly the modern interdependence of people. Great streams of traffic pouring over the highways will show how essential are mutual regard and courtesy among drivers. Fireworks will demonstrate it too. A "firecracker thrown by another" is, according to the National Conservation Bureau, the greatest single cause of the tremendous number of fireworks accidents every Fourth of July. At the beaches and lakes, imprudent swimmers will again remind us that human life must be risked to save the life of a drowning person.

Reasonable care divides a happy holiday from the tragedies which mar it. Reasonable care will insure you, your family, and the other fellow against mishap. For instance:

If you drive—see that your car is in good mechanical condition. Check tires, lights, brakes, steering mechanism, windshield wiper, rear-view mirror, horn. Drive skillfully, at a reasonable speed. Observe the rules and courtesies of the road.

If you must use fireworks—Give yourself plenty of space. Keep away from children and animals and buildings. Throw firecrackers away from people and inflammable materials, not at them. Never hold an exploding firecracker, nor set them off under a bottle or can. Cauterize the smallest wound immediately—tetanus poisoning works fast and kills.

If you go swimming—swim in safe and protected places. Know your limits as a swimmer. Wait two hours after eating. Avoid shallow places.

One way in which visitors to the Lake Region may avoid the hazards always incident to holiday celebrations is to attend the American Legion festival in Antioch, where there will be amusement for young and old. Starting Friday night the carnival will run for four days, through Monday afternoon and evening.

CHIPS OFF THE OLD BLOCK

Foreign Missionary to Speak at Whitfield Home, Wed., July 7

Mrs. J. B. Allen Served Five Years Among African Tribesmen

Mrs. James B. Allen, who served five years in French West Africa as a missionary under the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions, will lecture at the home of Mrs. Whitfield at Lake Marie, Wednesday afternoon, July 7th.

Over 95,000 natives are under the supervision of the mission, which serves the entire Cameroon, a territory equivalent in size to Pennsylvania and Indiana combined.

Mrs. Allen, during her stay in Africa lived back in the bush in a bark hut with a grass roof, miles from the government post. Her neighbors were primitive people who, even at the present time, eat from a common kettle and wear clothing made of grass or bark.

The missionaries, whose work involved much travel through almost trackless jungles, used motor-cycles, native bearers, and canoes fashioned from hollowed logs for transportation. At night they built fires around their encampment as a means of protection against wild animals.

Mrs. Allen has been an honored guest at the home of a cannibal king—and that's but one of the adventures she will tell about at the Whitfield home on the Seventh of July.

There will be a dessert luncheon served at one o'clock.

Boosters Drop First League Game

The Antioch Boosters fell victims to the McHenry team here Monday night in the first scheduled game of the newly formed soft ball league. The six-team circuit includes Antioch, Fox Lake, Spring Grove, Richmond, and two teams from McHenry. Games will be played every Monday night on Spring Grove's lighted diamond, and the games will continue until early September.

A complete schedule is being arranged this week. Charley Freund of Spring Grove is president of the new association. A trophy will go to the league winner, and will become the permanent property of the team winning three consecutive years.

Donkey Team Here in July
The famous donkey team that appeared on the local diamond last year will again visit Antioch for a game with the Boosters some time this July. Manager Richard Folbrich announced today.

Al Keulman's All-Stars defeated the Long Lake team on the local lot Monday night.

Attends Shrine Convention
Fred B. Swanson returned Saturday from Detroit, Michigan, where he had spent the week in attendance at the annual national convention of Shriners. Visitors in Detroit, numbering over a hundred thousand, saw the most colorful pageant in the history of the Shrine organization, according to Swanson, who attended with the delegation from Medinah Temple, Chicago. New uniforms, a band of 120 pieces, and the prize-winning Arab Patrol of 160 men were features of the Medinah contingent, which Swanson declares was "tops" in the three gorgeous parades, two of which were held at night.

X-Ray Reveals Mother's Watch Inside Girl, 3

"It just slipped down."

That's what tiny, blond Florence Andrews, 3, told doctors and technicians at Little Company of Mary Hospital when X-rays showed a woman's wrist watch and part of the metal bracelet in the little girl's stomach.

Florence is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Andrews, 1653 W. Ninety-second street, North Beverly. Sunday afternoon she was sent to her usual nap. Prowling in the bedroom, she found her mother's white gold watch.

Dr. Fred Sheehan took Florence to the hospital, where she was X-rayed. Except for hospital fright, the tiny patient seemed none the worse, Chicago Daily Times.

Through broadcasts from coast to coast the case attracted attention of the medical profession throughout the country.

The watch was recovered at 3 p. m. Wednesday without necessitating an operation.

Dr. Sheehan, former chief of staff at Little Company of Mary hospital, Chicago, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Sheehan of Loon Lake.

NEW MARRIAGE LAW EFFECTIVE TODAY

Requires Medical Certificate Before Issuance of License

The lucrative marriage mill business carried on in many Illinois cities came to an abrupt end today when the new Salliel bill went into effect in this state.

The new law just passed by the state legislature requires that couples wishing to get married must submit for filing with the application a certificate from a licensed physician stating that the contracting parties are free from venereal diseases, and the findings of a laboratory test to show there is no trace of syphilis in the blood.

The new regulation is expected to boost the cost of licenses in Lake county to at least $5 and the cost in some cases may be as high as $15. The regular license fee is $1, to which will be added at least $2 for a doctor's certificate and $5 for laboratory Wasserman or Kahn blood test. Many physicians are not in position to make the required examinations and blood tests as required by the Salliel law, but they may request the state department of health to make the laboratory tests free of charge. The average cost for such state department tests is $5. The medical tests must be made by the parties to the proposed marriage within 15 days prior to the issuance of a license.

The new law further provides:

"All persons desiring to marry shall within 15 days prior to the issuance of a license to marry, be examined by any duly licensed physician as to the existence or non-existence in such person of any venereal disease."

"It shall be unlawful for the county clerk of any county to issue a license to marry to any person who fails to present for filing with such county clerk a certificate setting forth that such person is free from venereal disease as nearly as can be determined by a thorough examination."

The "Third New Deal"

In some European countries they have five-year plans, four-year plans and the like, which succeed one another. In our own country we now have proposed for us the third New Deal, according to no less an authority on New Deals than General Hugh Johnson former fiery leader of the NRA. And General Johnson thinks that this third New Deal is a departure from the first in the direction of some form of governmental autocracy.

According to the former NRA head, the first New Deal, in which he played a prominent part, was designed for the emergency of the depression in 1933 and for the dangerous reconstruction years which followed, and it proposed to work through the constitutional forms of American democracy.

The case with this third New Deal is entirely different, according to General Johnson in a recent radio address. He declared that nobody can read the proposed legislation and communications sent to Congress since the first of the year "and escape the conviction that, taken altogether, they push our carefully guarded democracy some distance toward the fascist and communist experiments, which for all that is said, are as alike as two peas — government by executive fiat with little if any popular participation." He mentioned, as examples of the modern trend toward centralization of authority, the Supreme Court bill, the wage, hour and agriculture bills and the proposal for seven new districts for national planning with reference to power production and distribution. Continuing the General said:

"In any system in which any one single authority makes what laws it desires, interprets them as it wishes, executes them as it will and controls the judging of all three, there is no check this side of heaven and no appeal on earth."

In his address General Johnson was again calling attention to the growing belief held in many quarters that the nation is entering a trend toward centralization of power in Washington and away from the American idea of home rule and individual initiative. Call it communism, fascism or what you will, an entirely new step is proposed for our America at a time when we ought to be particularly careful in watching our step.

The Legacy

Every baby born in the United States in 1936 inherited a debt of $420 — his or her share of the total public debt, federal, state and local. By the time Junior or Sister finally works off this debt with interest the payment will have been $840. This stands as a first mortgage on the property the child might hold now or subsequently accumulate or upon the earnings which he will make when he starts to work.—The Sohioan.

Every Man's Right

Thirty-five years ago, there was a serious coal strike. President Theodore Roosevelt appointed a special commission to settle it. The following extract from the Commission's report is as pertinent now as it was then: "The right to remain at work where others have ceased to work, or to engage anew in work which others have abandoned, is part of the personal liberty of a citizen that can never be surrendered."

"All government implies restraint, and it is not less, but more, necessary in self-governed communities than in others, to compel restraint of the passions of men which make for disorder and lawlessness. Our language is the language of a free people, and fails to furnish any form of speech by which the right of a citizen to work when he pleases, for whom he pleases, and on what terms he pleases, can be successfully denied."

"The common sense of our people, as well as the common law, forbids that this right should be assailed with impunity. Approval of the object of a strike, or persuasion that its purpose is high and noble, cannot sanction an attempt to destroy the right of others to a different opinion in this respect, or to interfere with their conduct in choosing to work upon what terms and at what time and for whom it may please them to do so."

"The right thus to work cannot be made to depend upon the approval or disapproval of the personal conduct of those who claim to exercise this right. If this were otherwise, then those who remain at work might, if they were in the majority, have both the right and power to prevent the others, who choose to cease to work, from so doing."

"This all seems too plain for argument. Common sense and common law alike denounce the conduct of those who interfere with this fundamental right of the citizen. The assertion of the right seems trite and commonplace, but that land is blessed where the maxims of liberty are commonplaces."

If Things Were Made by Hand

Critics of the machine and mass production methods seldom consider what the machine has done in making more and better things available to more people.

According to the National Machine Tool Builders' Association, a large automobile manufacturer recently estimated that a car which today sells for $600 would cost at least as much as $3,500 if made by non-mass-production methods.

It isn't hard to see what this would do to automobile production when we note that in 1935 in the above-$3,000 wholesale price range, 2,428 automobiles were sold in the United States and Canada. But of all price ranges somewhere in the neighborhood of 4,000,000 cars were sold this same year.

Here are some other facts about what things would cost if made by other than mass production methods: A leading typewriter manufacturer estimates the cost of a typewriter at $1,000 instead of slightly more than $100.

An alarm clock would sell for at least $25, according to the vice-president of a leading alarm clock firm.

An electric refrigerator manufacturer states that refrigerators made experimentally cost approximately six times as much as those made on production assembly.

Locating Vegetable Crops

WHENEVER possible the vegetable crop should be suited to the soil. By far the best soil for nearly all crops is a loam with good water-holding capacity. Nearly all crops, too, should have full sun.

But conditions can rarely be perfect. The following information is offered as a guide for those who have problems in locating crops.

In heavy or clayey soils, grow the following: Beans, Beets, Broccoli, Brussels Sprouts, Cabbage, Cauliflower, Chicory, Corn, Kale, Peas, Pumpkin, Rhubarb, Spinach, Squash, Swiss Chard and Rutabaga.

In light or sandy soils plant Asparagus, Carrot, Celery, Collards, Chinese Cabbage (Celery Cabbage), Cucumber, Egg Plant, Endive, Kohlrabi, Lettuce, Muskmelon, Watermelon, Mustard, Okra, Onion, Parsley, Parsnip, Pepper, Radish, Tomato, Turnip and most of the herbs.

Sandy soils usually yield an early but comparatively light crop. Clayey soils usually mature the crop a little later, but the yield is heavier.

In muck soils, plant Onions, Celery, Chinese Cabbage, Radish, Turnip, Carrot, Kale, Lettuce, Mustard, Parsley, Parsnip, Rhubarb, Spinach, Swiss Chard, and herbs. Onions and Celery are excellent muck crops.

In shaded portions of the garden, the following may be tried: Beans, Radish, Lettuce, Endive, Kale, Cabbage, Beet, Sprouting Broccoli, Carrot, Mustard, Parsley, Parsnip, Rhubarb, Swiss Chard, Turnips and Rutabaga.

For planting near the house, which must be considered from the standpoint of appearance, the following are advised because of their more attractive foliage and neater habit of growth: Parsley, Kale, Beets, Lettuce, Spinach, Dwarf Beans, Cucumbers (trilled on trellis), herbs, and Corn (if there is sufficient space).

Use for Artificial Fly

Macedonians' Discovery

I am of the opinion that the artificial fly dates back to the era of the Macedonians, and was the invention of necessity, states a writer in the Detroit Free Press. Those who fished along the Astraeus river were unable to catch the fish abounding therein because the only thing the fish responded to was a fly which hovered over the river, and which proved to be unsuitable for bait when used by the fishermen. It lost its color and its wings shriveled up.

It was then necessary for them to find a bait equally attractive and effective. They discovered that by winding a piece of crimson wool around a hook, and attaching thereto two feathers from the neck of a cock they had an artificial fly which was a real competitor so far as fish were concerned. You know the rest—states set aside streams for fly fishing only. Each year finds its popularity increasing.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"CHRISTIAN SCIENCE" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, June 27.

The Golden Text was, "The earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea" (Isaiah 11:9).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "My doctrine shall drop as the rain, my speech shall distill as the dew, as the small rain upon the tender herb, and as the showers upon the grass: Because I will publish the name of the Lord: ascribe ye greatness unto our God. He is the Rock, his work is perfect: for all his ways are judgment: a God of truth and without iniquity, just and right is he" (Deuteronomy 32:2-4).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "All Science is divine. Human thought never projected the least portion of true being. . . . No human pen nor tongue taught me the Science contained in this book, Science and Health; and neither tongue nor pen can overthrow it. This book may be distorted by shallow criticism or by careless or malicious students, and its ideas may be temporarily abused and misrepresented; but the Science and truth therein will forever remain to be discerned and demonstrated" (p. 120) 110.

Eloquence of Chief John Logan
In addition to Chief John Logan's famous speech that has been given a permanent place in our histories, he also once wrote a letter that, while it is far from the speech in eloquence, it has nevertheless been held up as one of the more eloquent things done by an Indian, says a writer in the Cleveland Plain Dealer. Dated July 21, 1774, it was fastened to a war club and left in the cabin of a slain settler. It read: "What did you kill my people on Yellow Creek for? The white people killed my kin at Conestoga a great while ago, and I thought nothing of that. But you killed my kin again on Yellow Creek, and took my cousin in prisoner. Then I thought I must kill, too, and I have been three times to war since, but the Indians are not angry, only myself."

Sign of the "Go-Getter"
The square type of hand is one in which the back of the hand (excluding the fingers) is almost square in shape. This is the hand of the practical materialist. The man or woman who pushes things through to a decisive conclusion, according to a writer in Pearson's London Weekly. Possessed of a hand such as this you are determined and forceful, possess little imagination or creative ability, but can be relied upon to make a success of any occupation where sheer grit is required. Methodical and painstaking, once you get your teeth into a thing, like the bull-dog, you won't let go. You must see it through.

Popular Irish Poem
One of the most popular Irish poems, "Kathleen Mavourneen," was written by an Englishwoman.

ACES PLAY COLORED TEAM HERE JULY 4

Dr. King's All-Nations colored baseball team from North Chicago will play a return game here with the Antioch Aces on the high school diamond, Sunday, July 4. The Aces declare they intend to avenge the defeat handed them two weeks ago by Dr. King's team.

Marks of Past Illness

Shown by Hair and Nails
Signs of past illness often remain long after the illness has ended. These are to be found where the circulation is poorest, viz., in the hair and the nails, says a writer in Pearson's London Weekly.

After a severe illness, you will often find that a ridge appears running across the nail and growing with it, advancing towards the free end as the nail gets longer. This is due to the fact that the illness has absorbed a good deal of the patient's strength and the circulation, in consequence, has not been sufficient to nourish the nails properly.

When anyone gets run down in general health, the nails frequently suffer in other ways, especially if the condition is a chronic one. They may become brittle and crack easily, while sometimes they are pitted with small holes as though they had been worm-eaten.

To restore the appearance of the nails you must, of course, first restore the general health. The principal cause of the debility must be treated, and when this has been done improvement in the circulation follows. As soon as the nails begin again to get proper nourishment they quickly regain their healthy look.

Bump of Firmness

Firm-willed, obstinate folks have a very well-formed bump high up on the crown of the head. In some cases, says a phrenologist in London Answers Magazine, a highly developed bump of firmness means that its owner will gain success through sheer determination and persistence; in others it may mean that there is unreasonable persistence and obstinacy. But unless you have quite a pronounced bump here you have no will of your own. Just behind this is the bump of self-esteem. Moderation, as you can guess, is very necessary with a bump of this nature. You need just an average-sized bump here.

POULTRY

CAN REDUCE COST OF POULTRY FEED

May Replace Costly Rations With Soybean Meal.

By R. E. Gray, Poultry Department, Ohio State University.—WNU Service.

Poultrymen can reduce the costs of rations for chicks and for the laying flock by substituting pressure-cured soybean meal for part of the high priced ingredients that are used to furnish the birds protein.

Dried milk and meat scraps, two common materials used to furnish protein in poultry rations, cost more than the soybean meal; and the cost of the ration for laying hens is very important at this season of declining egg prices. The soybean meal can be used to replace at least one-half of the meat scrap and to reduce the amount of dried milk to 2 per cent of the laying ration. From 3 to 5 per cent of dried milk should be kept in chick rations.

Ground soybeans containing the natural oil cannot be used successfully as poultry feed, but the meal produced at mills where the oil is extracted is satisfactory except that a mineral mixture should be added. The mineral mixture can be made of 40 pounds bone meal, 20 pounds limestone, and 20 pounds salt. This mixture should be used at the rate of one pound to every five pounds of soybean meal.

At present market prices, dried milk is selling for five times as much as soybean meal and meat scraps are nearly twice as expensive. Decreasing the amount of milk in the ration will lower the vitamin G content but this can be supplied by feeding green grass, good legume hay, or alfalfa meal.

Early Care Basis for Future Flock Profits

The future success of the poultry flock depends a great deal upon the care and management of growing chicks in the spring. Give them proper care and they will grow into strong, vigorous, profitable birds.

Some of the fundamentals to observe while the chicks are young were pointed out as follows:

Do not overcrowd. See that there are not more than two chicks for each square foot of floor space in the brooder house.

Provide two half-gallon drinking fountains for each 100 chicks. One five-foot mash hopper will be enough for each 100 chicks during the first three weeks.

From the age of three weeks until they reach broiler size, each 100 chicks should have two mash hoppers four inches high, six inches wide, and five feet long.

Inadequate feeding and drinking facilities is one of the worst faults in poultry raising.

Have adequately controlled ventilation. More chicks are killed or weakened by overheating than by chilling. Keep the feed hoppers filled with a well balanced mash.

Aim to have the chicks consuming about equal parts of mash and scratch feed at the sixth week.

Maintain rigid sanitation. Cull all slow developing chicks. These seldom "come through" and prove profitable.

When the weather permits, get the chicks out on the ground. A great deal of benefit is gained from sunshine, green feed, and fresh air.

Use Clean Dry Litter

Straw is not the best litter there is for baby chicks. Oak hulls, peat moss, finely ground corn cobs, shavings, etc., are said to be better. If merely the "best" litter were the only consideration not much would be left to say on the subject. The facts are farmers have to get by as cheaply as possible and at the same time strive for good results. It is true that wheat and oat straw becomes damp quickly and if not chopped up fine is too coarse for small chicks, yet on most farms it is by far the cheapest litter available, is grown on the farm and requires no outlay of cash. That good results can be had by using it is indisputable. The important thing about it is to use plenty—change it often.

Poultry Notes

A good lighting system in the poultry house increases the annual production of the birds.

Eggs from yearling hens are best for hatching, as breeding stock must be fully matured to obtain strong, healthy chicks.

The poultry industry is a sizable business, worthy of best efforts whether in research, teaching, production or marketing.

Hens should be kept housed in winter, but should have straw to scratch in, so they may exercise.

The upkeep of a flock of bantams, large or small, is about half the cost of a like amount of regular size poultry. They eat little more than a pigeon.

Ten per cent or more of the pullets can be culled from the flock at the end of the first laying season without materially affecting the number of eggs produced.

June Bridal Party in Summer Velvet

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

SUMMER velvet is important fashion news for the bride-to-be who is seeking a radiantly beautiful and out of the ordinary material for the making of her own gown as well as those for her attendants.

No word picturing can do justice to this enchanting fabric, for the loveliness of summer velvet cannot be visualized by the mere telling. Unless you have seen summer velvet you are due for a surprise for it is not all-velvet by any means. Imagine, if you can, a sheer filmy mousseline de soie or chiffon or dainty organza background strewn with exquisitely delicate interwoven velvet designs or motifs, well that's summer velvet.

The idea of costuming the bride and her attendants in summer velvet becomes the more intriguing in that a most fascinating play on color is made possible for the velvet motifs can be any color you choose.

The scheme is worked out in this manner for the gowns pictured. White mousseline de soie patterned with tiny winged motifs of white velvet is used for the youthful wedding gown as here shown. The bride wears pearls and a diamond clip at the low V-shape décolletage. Her bouquet is the new idea—pale lavender orchids carried in a handle of carved crystal, forming a fan effect.

The matron of honor to the right in the picture also wears summer velvet—white mousseline de soie with green velvet motifs posed over a matching green slip. The sash is of bands of matching green velvet and pale yellow. The hat, a new version of the poke bonnet, is in the same green shade with a huge bow and long streamers of wide green velvet ribbon. The matron of honor's bouquet is of palest yellow and white freesias. Her Aris gloves are white lace kid with delicate embroidery in gold thread. Emeralds are set in necklace and clip. White and yellow are worn by each of the other bridesmaids with jewelry tuned to correspond. These frocks can be worn all summer.

Completing the scheme for this summer wedding the bride's mother, pictured to the left, wears the same summer velvet fabric but in a patterning of delphinium blue bow-knots on a silk sheer with tiny flowers of delphinium, with a velvet sash of matching color. When the jacket is removed the dress has a low formal neckline. Her hat is a smart new tricorne of navy straw with tiny flowers of delphinium. The dainty corsage is of lilies of the valley in the center of which are a few delphinium blossoms.

For that "something different" look that brides covet for their wedding pageantry here are a few suggestions. If the bridesmaids have long streamers to their hats a clever touch is to snap one of the streamers about the right wrist under a bracelet bouquet. Then there is the idea of veils for the bridesmaids. These are of tulle in colors related to each costume. They are waist depth and fall gracefully about the shoulders.

LACE FOR SUMMER BRIDE NEW STYLE

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

The June bride will be fashionably attired this season when she chooses lace for her gowns. With the present vogue for lace for day-time wear, for evening gowns, and for the highly popular house coats and delicate negligees, the romantic appeal of this material makes it a favorite for wedding gowns and bridesmaids' dresses.

Cut on classic lines, the beautiful lace patterns of this season allow for exquisite details of workmanship for the bridal gown. One lovely gown seen recently is perfectly simple in line but has fine details of applied seamings at the point below the hips where the slight fullness starts. The very full train, and the skirt and neck edges likewise, have an applied scalloped edge of lace. This intricate treatment shows to advantage particularly as the veil is quite short and does not fall to the train. In general these lace wedding gowns have shorter veils so that their delicate patterns are not obscured.

Wedding Parties Dressed

All in Lace Is Fashion

Wedding parties dressed entirely in lace are in the fashion picture this year. One of the best we have seen is of all-white peau d'ange in a Chantilly pattern for the bride. There were no seams to the dress, avoiding any unnecessary line that might interfere with the beautiful pattern of the lace, and the edges throughout were entirely hand-appliqued. A matching mantilla head-dress was worn with this wedding gown.

The wedding party, all in lace, made a charming and appropriate setting for the bride. The bridesmaids' dresses were of novelty all-over lace, in pastel shades. The headresses, in contrast with the mantilla of the bride, were formed like a hood, from the collar at the back.

Hints on Tints

Capucine colors will be among the new color accents during the coming season. They have their origin in the various shades of the popular nasturtium.

SHORT DANCE FROCK

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

When the new short-length dance frock first made its appearance it created quite a sensation. However, it did not take long for it to become a general favorite. The dress pictured is of lovely printed silk chiffon. It accents the slender waistline such as fashion demands—a return to the silhouettes of the long ago. The gown was worn by a prominent society debutante at "The Silk Parade to Waltz Time," a benefit affair recently taking place in New York.

Lanvin Jackets Are Made of Silver or Gold Kid

Silver or gold kid is used over and over again for evening at Lanvin where flowing robes are trimmed with oriental applications of leather.

At the same house are separate jackets entirely of stitched kid which is so soft and fine that it looks like lacquered satin.

Our Own Tested Recipe

By Frances Lee Barton

FROM the very first time I tasted a toasted marshmallow, I've had a particularly soft spot in my appetite for toasted things. The newness and goodness of flavor that comes along with the mellow, golden brown of toasted food is to me one of the wonders of cookery. Whenever I can ring the "toasted" element into my dishes I do it. One of the most successful recipes I know is this delicious homemade Apples and red currant combination in a tapoca dessert which I want to pass along to you.

Toasted Coconut Ice Cream
1/2 package (scant 1/2 cup) unflavored ice cream powder; 2 tablespoons sugar; 1 cup milk; 1 cup cream, whipped; 4 drops almond extract; 1/2 cup shredded coconut, toasted.

Combine unflavored ice cream powder and sugar. Add milk very gradually, stirring until dissolved. Fold in whipped cream and almond extract. Turn into freezing tray of automatic refrigerator, setting control for lowest freezing temperature. Stir when frozen 1/4 inch thick on sides and twice more at 20-minute intervals, adding shredded coconut with third stirring. Freezing time, about 3 hours. Makes 1/2 quart ice cream.

For 1 1/2 quarts, double recipe above, using full contents of package. Freeze in one or two trays 3 to 6 hours.

IT'S a common trait of our palates to tire of the old favorite flavors when they are overworked. For that reason most of us are on the lookout for practical new combinations of the old standby. Through my recipe book the other day, I found a grand apple and red currant combination in a tapoca dessert which I want to pass along to you.

Apple and Red Currant Tapoca
2 cups thinly sliced apples; 1 cup prepared red currants; 1/4 cup water; 1 tablespoon lemon juice; 1/4 cup sugar; 2 cups water; 4 tablespoons quick-cooking tapoca; 1/2 teaspoon salt.

Pare and slice cooking apples, and stem and wash currants; combine, add 1/4 cup water, lemon juice, and 1/4 cup sugar, and cook, covered, until apples are tender. Cool. Place 2 cups water in top of double boiler and bring to a boil over direct heat. Combine quick-cooking tapoca, remaining 1/2 cup sugar, and salt, add gradually to water and bring to a brisk boil, stirring constantly. Place immediately over rapidly boiling water and cook 5 minutes, stirring occasionally. Cool—mixture clears and thickens as it cools. When slightly cool, fold in fruit. Chill. Serve in sherbet glasses with plain or whipped cream. Serves 6.

The Tree Fish

Among the strange creatures in Australia is the mudskipper. It swims, walks on land—why it even climbs trees. The fish, found in rivers of Northern Queensland, are generally about 10 inches long. A real freak of nature, they have lungs in addition to gills. Their thick front fins are about the shape and size of frogs' legs. On these they walk. A mudskipper usually goes ashore pursued by a crab, its mortal enemy. To escape, it ascends the roots of a mangrove tree, many of which grow near the shore. Thus it gets another name, "mangrove fish."

Isaac Watts, the hymn writer, was born at Southampton in 1717. From 1696 to 1701 he was a tutor in the family of Sir John Hartopp. He became minister of the independent church at Mark Lane, London, 1702, resigning in 1712 because of ill health. Watts was a popular writer and his theological works were numerous. His treatise on "Logic" became well known, but his reputation rests chiefly upon his hymns. He died in 1748.

Rush of Land Crabs

Probably the maddest migrations in animal life take place in West Africa at a certain time each year when millions of land crabs rush to the seashore to lay their eggs. Closely packed together and traveling at a maximum speed, says Collier's Weekly, they produce a noise, through bumping one another with their hard shells, comparable to that of a cavalry regiment.

Respect for Personality
There are few more precious gifts which the home, meaning largely the mother, can give a child than a respect for personality; for this determines how easy he is to live with, in other words, his character.

As It Should Be
Manly nobleness, womanly tenderness, childlike trust, these are among the host of natural affections and generous enthusiasms.

China's Coastline
China has a 4,000-mile coastline, borders some 8,000 miles on Soviet Russia and about 4,800 miles on British possessions.

Can Check on Growth of Mind
The growth of mind can be followed and checked by the advancing responses with which the mind enters into fuller possession of things.
